Route

The Golden Quadrilateral (GQ) is a national highway network connecting most of the major industrial, agricultural and cultural centers of India. It forms a quadrilateral connecting the four major metro cities of India, viz., Delhi (north), Kolkata (east), Mumbai (west) and Chennai (south). Other cities connected by this network include Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Balasore, Bhubaneswar, Cuttack, Durgapur, Jaipur, Kanpur, Pune, Surat, Vijayawada, Ajmer, Vizag, Bodhgaya, Varanasi, Agra, Mathura, Dhanbad, Gandhinagar, Udaipur, and Vadodara. The main objective of these super highways is to reduce the distance and time between the four mega cities of India.

Only National Highways are used in the Golden Quadrilateral. The four legs use the following National Highways (new numbering system):

1. Delhi-Kolkata: NH 19
2. Delhi-Mumbai-Chennai: NH 48
3. Kolkata-Chennai: NH 16

Statistics

Total 4 phases of the project.

1. Rewari to Mumbai – Completed
2. Mumbai to Chennai – Half Completed
3. Chennai to Kolkata – Cancelled due to Covid 19
4. Kolkata to Rewari – Cancelled due to Covid 19

Total 2100 km successfully traveled on cycle by avid cyclist Rtn. Mahesh Kumar.

We after conscious discussion with District Governor Rtn. Suresh Bhasin (Distt 3011), Assistant Governor Rtn. Ravi Gupta (zone 16), Sh. OM Prakash (Mahesh' Father) analyzed the situation & decided to call off this initiative for the safety of Mahesh. The decision to suspend this project was hard to take but the safety of the cyclist is prime concern of Rotary.

- 42 Rotary clubs of 17 Rotary Districts of India (Out of 38 Districts) got already associated.
- Approx. 50+ clubs from another 7 Rotary Districts were planned to be associated in Phase 3 & Phase 4.
- We are extremely thankful for all the Rotarians from various associated or to be associated district for this exemplary support to Rtn. Mahesh in this mega initiative.

One of the biggest multi club, multi zonal, multi district 6000 km solo cycling expedition by any club of India done by Rotary Club of Rewari Main Distt 3011.
